Intersec Forum meets live again – at Light + Building 2022

Frankfurt am Main, 16.11.2021. Live and with a secure event concept, the fifth Intersec Forum, Conference for connected security technology, will take place in 2022: It begins on the second day of Light + Building and accompanies the leading international trade fair for lighting and building services technology in its Intersec Building section – with conference knowledge and expert networking on all aspects of connected technologies for the security of and in buildings.

The specialist conference for connected security technology is the cross-industry expert meeting and networking event for those who plan, operate and develop building technology systems. Their challenges lie in the integration of various security systems and technologies. Accordingly, the conference content covers all technical, legal, economic, regulatory and scientific aspects of the connecting building services and security trades. The focus will be on the industry topics: Future business models of security technology in the digital building; Semantic interoperability of the trades, software and protocols; Video technology and access control, use of biometric data; Fire protection in the context of building renovation; AI and predictive security. The partner of Intersec Forum in the conference planning is ZVEI-Services GmbH.

Intersec Forum will be the central content interface at Light + Building within the frame of its Intersec Building product area focusing on connected security technology – on site on March 14-18, 2022.

Connectivity + security: top theme at Light + Building

Connected security technology is one of the top themes at Light + Building: Numerous renowned exhibitors will present their solutions in the Intersec Building product area in Frankfurt am Main from 13 to 18 March 2022. This platform of exhibitors of security technology products and systems, which will be on show in the various exhibition halls and as a focal point in Hall 8.0, is the setting for the Intersec Forum and its comprehensive programme.

The Intersec Forum, Conference for connected security technology, will be held as part of the Intersec Building platform at Light + Building, the world's leading international trade fair for lighting and building services technology, from the second day of the fair, 14 to 18 March 2022, in Hall 8.0 of the Exhibition Centre in Frankfurt am Main. Conference participation in the Intersec Forum is included in the ticket fees for Light + Building.
